Summer Produce At Its Best!

Did you get caught in Thursday afternoon's rain showers? It was just what our growers were waiting for. In fact, one grower was ready to do a "rain dance."

You can still take advantage of one of the best tomato seasons in a while. If you've been waiting to put away some of your family recipe tomato sauce for the cold, dark winter nights that are coming, this might be a good week to ask about five or 10 pounds of "scratch-and-dent" bulk tomatoes.

You will also find many varieties of sweet melons, including the "Indy-lope," an Athena-style cantaloupe. There's also plenty of sweet corn, summer squash, okra, and eggplant.

New varieties are still showing up at the market. Wittmeyer White Oak Farm is harvesting the first "Battlefield Beans," and Salatin has concord grapes and an early variety of apples. You might even find some early hard, winter squash this week, as we get ready to turn the corner to fall crops.

Finn Meadows is having another "bulk weekend," with special prices on potatoes and onions. And Jessie's Garden is bringing microgreens and sprouts.

A heads up: Crackling Crust will be away next week, so you might want to freeze an extra loaf of bread. And Alan, at Probasco Urban Farm, is switching to oyster, honey, and lion's mane mushrooms. No more chanterelles, for now.

The weather looks golden again on Saturday morning. We hope to see you at the Market.

PS: Check out the One-Man Jazz Band with a cup of Deeper Roots and a treat!

MFM Accepts Credit Cards & SNAP/EBT

MFM can now accept SNAP benefits (formerly known as "food stamps"), and credit cards. Here are the details.

To use SNAP, come to the MFM Manager's Booth to swipe your card and convert your benefits into MFM Bucks (for use at our market only).

PRODUCE PERKS

As an added benefit, MFM has teamed up with Produce Perks (a non-profit), which will match the first ten dollars ($10.00) of SNAP purchases for fresh fruits and vegetables.

This allows SNAP customers to double their first $10 in produce purchases.

The same system will allow you to use credit cards at MFM. Some of our vendors already accept credit cards. For the rest, come to the Manager's Booth. We will swipe your credit card for the amount you want (in $10 increments). You will receive MFM Bucks to use at all vendors' booths. We pass along to you our $1.00 processing fee.

We are grateful to the City of Montgomery for their financial support and encouragement with this project. The City continues to be a strong supporter of the Market.

Make A Button

Maybe you have a little artist in the family. Maybe you're the artist. We have stickers with the MFM logo, blank stickers, lots of markers, and a button machine. For a $1 donation, you can show your talent and support the Market. Stop by near the Manager's Booth and make a button!
