Sweets & Treats But Don't Forget The Veggies

We have farm fresh veggies even when the temperature is in the teens in December! Look at the beautiful broccoli!

Don't forget the microgreens. They provide the healthy goodness of a big plant in each little sprout. And they offer a great taste and crunch to a salad or a turkey or ham sandwich.

At the Market, you'll also find time-savers, which is helpful right now. Pick up a quick dinner from Patrizia's Kitchen (La Cucina della Patrizia). Try the frozen trout from Montgomery's own Plymouth Springs (it doesn't even need defrosting), along with some seafood seasoning from Seafood Goddess.

Like Mom's Only Vegan can save you time baking cookies. Crackling Crust is back with fresh bread. You can put a pie from Pies and Other Pleasures in the freezer for a last-minute pot luck (they freshen up great in the oven). And some fresh salsa from Garden of Eaten means you're ready when friends drop by.

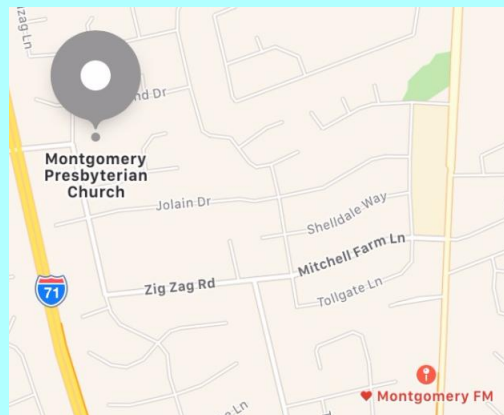

These are just a few of the holiday ideas at the Market.

The MFM Winter Market is located at Montgomery Presbyterian Church, 9994 Zigzag Rd., just 5 minutes from Montgomery Elementary.

New hours start 30 minutes later:
9:30am to 12:30pm.

The church is easy to find.

From our current location at Montgomery Elementary School, you head north on Montgomery Rd. to the first traffic light, at Mitchell Farm Ln. Turn left and go straight until the street ends. (The name changes to Zigzag Rd.) Turn right and the church is about two blocks down. Or you can approach from Kenwood Rd. Turn at the stoplight at Zigzag Rd. and follow it a few blocks across the overpass for I-71. You will be facing the church. Or use your GPS or mapping app.

The Winter Market will run until December 23rd.

We accept SNAP benefits and credit cards. Come to the Market Manager's booth to find out about both.

We are grateful to the Church's lay leadership, Rev. Michelle Bacon, Winter Market

We are grateful to the Church's lay leadership, Rev. Michelle Bacon, Winter Market coordinator Dave Dickey, and the volunteers from the Church for their support and hard work.

We hope to see you at the WINTER MARKET.
