

Montgomery Farmers' Market

August 27, 2015

Dear friend,

Have you gotten bored grilling the same burgers and dogs? Let the pros from Cooks'Wares inspire you this week with a grilling demo featuring fruits and vegetables! Come check out their techniques and tips and get a taste. All produce will be sourced from the market, so you can take home what they use and replicate it yourself.

Find the Peas!

Just a reminder that our three pea mascots are on the loose every week at the market! They are hiding among our vendors' booths. Kids who can tell the market manager where they are earn a Farmers' Buck to spend at the market!

What to Look Forward To

Every week the market will feature many of our regular vendors along with a selection of rotating vendors. Click on links to learn more about each vendor.

Friendly reminder: The Montgomery Farmers' Market Board to take this opportunity to remind our dog-loving friends of their responsibility to keep dogs on a leash and maintain control of them at all times while visiting the Market. More than anything, we want to be sure that all of our visitors (2 and 4 legged!) and vendors have a safe and enjoyable time at the Market. We appreciate your cooperation and support. To share any questions or comments about the Market with the board, please email montfarmersmkt@gmail.com.
