RAIN OR SHINE

Dear Montgomery Farmers' Market Patrons:

Come start Bastille Day with us this Saturday! We're going "a little French" at the Montgomery Farmers' Market.

At 10:30am, Chef Suzy DeYoung (from La Soupe and formerly from La Petite Pierre) will demonstrate how to make a cold vichyssoise soup. Suzy will also have her soup to sample and for sale all morning. For every quart of soup she sells, Suzy donates a bowl to a shelter, a pantry or a soup kitchen. Come learn from a master, and support many good causes.

Also, look for fresh crepes with Nutella and strawberries at Puffins, croissants and baguettes at Frieda's, fresh ingredients for your own French recipes, like green beans to julienne, and special treats around the Market. Then walk a block down to the Bastille Day Celebration.

Congratulations, kids! We had well over 100 kids come out and participate in our first ever Kids' Taste-A-Thon last week! And 90 of you tasted everything offered! You tasted raw sweet corn, pineapple jam, garden salsa, olive oil, cherry tomatoes, bison jerky, and more! Thank you to our tasters, their patient parents, our generous vendors, and our partners: Sycamore Wellness Committee and the City of Montgomery! All of you helped make this a wonderful event!

Thank you for your support! See you Saturday!

Stuart, Marian, Christen, Brian, Martin, Kim, Armin, Marc, and Market Manager Ken
