

SNAP/EBT (Food Stamps)

Our SNAP/EBT credit card machine appears to be working once again. Hooray!
Thank you for your patience as we worked through this issue.

Autumn is in the air!

Along with our summer produce, we are now enjoying the beginnings of the pumpkins, gourds, apples, squash and mums! You can find bunches of eucalyptus at Jaybird Farm and pawpaws at Roothouse Aquaponics (they are also having a big sale on Genovese basil). There is even some apple cider available at Salatin's Orchard!

We wish a very warm welcome our new cheese vendor, Boone Creek Creamery! Read on to learn more about them.

No food truck this week, but we have no vendor absences. Eddie Osborne, master of many instruments, will be back to entertain us with his awesome tunes.

We'll see you soon!

As always, we are open every Saturday from May through the Saturday before Thanksgiving. We are located in the Montgomery Elementary School parking lot at 9609 Montgomery Road, Cincinnati, OH 45242. Come join in the fun!

We have a request of you. If you find yourself visiting the market during a time when the traffic is backed up, please plan on making a right-hand turn onto Montgomery Road when you leave (even if you want to make a left). This will help move the traffic along. Thank you very much!

The Scentery:
A Message from Cheri Wyatt

Baked Goods and Produce at the Scentery?

Did you know I use a variety of garden ingredients in my goodies and actually bake my bath salts, bath bombs, and shower steamers? No, you wouldn't want to eat my products, but why bake them you ask?

Not only does it make my whole house smell incredible, but baking also prevents the different salts and minerals from clumping and getting hard. Steamers and bombs benefit from baking because it helps them harden and protects them a bit from the humidity and temperature swings that can cause them to crumble.

As for the produce and ingredients that I use, you will find carrot, beet root, eggplant, pumpkin, sweet pea, and more, depending on the scent I'm creating. I also use a variety of nuts and seeds, like poppy, almond, oats, and coffee. Sometimes I even add a few ingredients from my own garden like lavender, rosemary, and dried flowers. All these ingredients are used in a variety of combinations to create my salts, scrubs, sprays, steamers, and more.

So come check out my "baked goods" and "produce" this week. I'm sure you will love my seasonal additions, including my orange spice pumpkin bombs and my pumpkin latte salt scrub. All my festive fall products and home aromatics will have an orange ribbon on them and will be available at the Montgomery Farmers' Market this Saturday.

Pups

A friendly reminder to our dog-loving friends to keep dogs on a leash and maintain control of them at all times while visiting the Market. Also keep the temperature in mind as the asphalt can get extra hot. More than anything, we want to be sure that all of our visitors (both 2- and 4-legged!) and vendors have a safe and enjoyable time at the Market.

We appreciate your cooperation and support.
